

FROM LOS CABOS AIRPORT

Take Hwy 1 toward La Paz. Stay on Hwy 1 for approximately 1.5 hours. Just after km marker 155, you will be in a town called San Antonio. You will pass by a Pemex gas station on the left, descending down a big hill, after which you will see a large stand of palm trees on the right. At the palm trees there will be a road to the right with signs for businesses and resorts in La Ventana. Turn right on this road (San Antonio Road) and continue for about 20-30 minutes until it dead ends. Take a left at the dead end, then pass another gas station and then take your first right. You'll see more signs for La Ventana businesses at this intersection. After you make this turn, drive approximately 9.5km until you see a small shopping center on your right with Teddy's Restaurant, Kijote Coffee shop and a real estate office. Turn right on the dirt road just after this shopping center and before the small yellow grocery store called Oscaritos. Drive to the end of this road and then up the last driveway on your right.

FROM LA PAZ AIRPORT

Turn right out of the airport and follow signs to La Paz Centro. Turn right on Blvd Luis D. Colosio. Follow this road through La Paz and up and over the mountain. At the bottom of the mountain turn left toward El Sargento. You will see signs for many of the hotels in La Ventana at this intersection. Drive approximately 9.5km (15 minutes) until you see a small shopping center on your right with Teddy's Restaurant, Kijote Coffee shop and a real estate office. Turn right just after this shopping center and before the small yellow grocery store called Oscaritos. Drive to the end of the road and then up the last driveway on your right.

